Dr. Fry's Yacht Nearly Finished.

The pleasure craft, reconstructed from the powerboat River Springs, at Bennett's boatyard for Dr. Henry B. Fry of this city, is rapidly approaching completion. When the boat goes into the water, pleasure craft experts say, Dr. Fry will have one of the handiest boats in the pleasure fleet owned here. The vessel is of the cruiser type, but has an exceptionally roomy cabin and ample deck room. She will be known as the Annabelle Lee.

More Pay at Rock Island Arsenal.

Secretary Baker said today that on reconsideration the Secretary of Labor had recommended that wage scales of Chicago machinists be considered in the readjustment of the wages of employees at the Rock Island, Ill., arsenal. Such action had been requested by the arsenal workmen and will result in material pay increases. An earlier decision by Secretary Baker and Wilson Bennett's board for Dr. Henry B. Fry of this city, is rapidly approaching completion. When the boat goes into the water, pleasure craft experts say, Dr. Fry will have one of the handiest boats in the pleasure fleet owned here. The vessel is of the cruiser type, but has an exceptionally roomy cabin and ample deck room. She will be known as the Annabelle Lee.

HIKERS HEAR THE CALL OF BIRDS AND FLOWERS

Crowd Numbering 136 Take Stroll Over Practically New Trails Leading From Kenilworth.

"It was a beautiful spring day and 136 heard the call of the birds and flowers and joined the wanderlust ranks yesterday afternoon," says the "official" account of the outing. W. Palmer Hall, leader, took the party over what was largely new trails from Kenilworth along country roads and across open fields to Beaver Dam branch, along this charming little ravine for some distance, thence through beautiful woods to Tuxedo and a little farther on the old Fielder Magruder place.

Upon reaching the Pennsylvania railway tracks at Tuxedo station, Landover road was the principal route of travel and on into Bladensburg, stopping little while in front of the Christopher Lowndes old house, thence by pike to the District line and by cross roads to Mr. Rainier.

This week is to be a full one for the wanderlusts and everybody else who will come along. Wednesday evening Miss Effie Koonitz will show some interesting paths in Potomac park, leaving at 7:45 from the south front of the Treasury. Sunday W. E.

GETTING LAUNCHES READY.

Corinthian Yacht Club Prepares for Decoration Day Cruise.

While all the yacht berths and clubhouses are busy places just now, as boat owners prepare their craft for summer cruising, the headquarters of the Corinthian Yacht Club, over on the Virginia shore, at the south end of the Highway bridge, is a particularly busy place. Within the past week or ten days most of the launches out of the water for the winter have completed repairs and been launched. Work is being pushed on the few vessels still ashore to get them overboard this week. In readiness for a trip down the river Decoration day. In addition to the work on the boats the clubhouse is being painted and the grounds are being laid out in walks and flower beds.
